

HALF-DAY SEMINAR · LAW ENFORCEMENT

COURAGEOUS NOBILITY

Three sessions. One journey: rediscover the calling, rebuild the bridge, and lead with courage.

About 4 hours | 3 sessions | Field workbooks | Sessions also booked individually

THE JOURNEY

1 Walking in the Desert REDISCOVER YOUR WHY

No matter how disconnected officers feel, the nobility of the job has not changed. Set your foundation, face the threat honestly, and step into action.

2 Finishing the Bridge REBUILD TRUST

You can't serve people you don't know. Real stories from the street on mentoring, relationships, and building trust with the people you serve.

3 Courageous Nobility LEAD WITH COURAGE

The signature close. The Courageous Police Leadership principles, the two sponges, the Battle of the Bulge, and a personal commitment to reignite the fire to serve.

WHAT ATTENDEES LEAVE WITH

- A written why and a three-line personal commitment
- Field workbooks for every session, with guided pen moments
- A 30-day plan to put each session to work on shift
- Before-and-after gauges so every officer can see the shift

SAMPLE AGENDA

8:00	Welcome
8:05	Session 1 · Walking in the Desert
9:05	Break
9:20	Session 2 · Finishing the Bridge
10:20	Break
10:35	Session 3 · Courageous Nobility
11:35	Commitments, Q&A, close
12:00	Done

IDEAL FOR

- Agency in-service and leadership days
- Supervisor and FTO courses
- Academies and graduating classes
- Regional and state conferences

FORMATS

- Half-day seminar: all three sessions
- À la carte: any single session as a keynote or breakout
- Times flex to your schedule

> Twenty-four years in law enforcement. Patrol, detective, homicide, crisis negotiator, sergeant, and university instructor.
>
> Sgt. Jeff Daukas · Author of Stories for the Journey

BOOK THE SEMINAR

jeffdaukas.com · Share your event, date, and audience.

Fees and travel on request. Each session is also available on its own.